

FINAL Ballot Paper

Fixed Term Parliaments

Question 1-

Please Mark X in one box below.

	Mark X in one box
Question 1
The current Constitutional position as regards the dissolution of Dáil Éireann should be changed
The current Constitutional position as regards the dissolution of Dáil Éireann should not be changed

Question 2-

Please Mark X in one box below.

If the current Constitutional position as regards the dissolution of Dáil Éireann is changed, how long should the parliamentary term be?
Question 2	Mark X in one box
Option 1: Four years
Option 2: Five years
Option 3: Prefer not to state an opinion

Question 3-

Please Mark X in one box below.

If the current constitutional position as regards the dissolution of Dáil Éireann is changed:
Question 3	Mark X in one box
Option 1: There should be an absolutely fixed term (i.e. one that cannot be cut short under any circumstances)
Option 2: There should be a fixed term but one that can be cut short subject to certain conditions
Option 3: Prefer not to state an opinion

Question 4-

If the current constitutional position as regards the dissolution of Dáil Éireann is changed, and there is a fixed term which can be cut short subject to certain conditions, whose approval should be needed for an early general election to be held?

Question 4	Please indicate your view in respect of each of the following by marking an X on each row
	Yes	No	Prefer not to state an opinion
a) The Cabinet (which includes the Taoiseach)
b) A majority of the members of Dáil Éireann
c) A super-majority of the members of Dáil Éireann (e.g. two thirds)
d) The President			